Must Hang

The case of Lo Holder, charged with murdering his father near Troy in Ononda County, Tenn., and who was tried and sentenced to hang by Circuit Court at Union City, was appealed to the State Supreme Court, which rendered a decision last week, affirming the opinion of the lower court. The date of execution is set for October 28. He manifested the same disinterested feeling at the trial which has throughout the entire proceedings.

There are quite a number of places in the streets in the city of Hickman that need repairing very much. These repairs should be made without attention for many years already, and do not reflect much credit upon the City Council that is in charge of municipal affairs.

Read What the President of the Royal Tailors Says:

By all odds the Largest Merchant Tailoring Establishment in the world.

"I am doing something no other tailor in the world can do!"

Something that is shaking the Merchant Tailoring Business from Head to Heels.

I am guaranteeing my made-to-measure (The Royal Tailors) clothes to hold their style until worn out.

Here are the exact words—weigh them, think what they mean to every man that wears clothes.

"I Legally Guarantee This Royal Tailor Suit or Overcoat to Keep its Style Until Worn Out."

Not for a day or month or six months of a year, but

"Until Worn Out."

Not merely to hold together—but to "keep its style."

Not a mere promise or talk to catch trade, but

"I Legally Guarantee" Royal Tailoring Under the Law—

In writing—signed in pen and ink.

Your suit or overcoat will keep its style from the day you first put it on until you throw it aside, worn out.

My guarantee is backed by $1,000,000.

Why don't other tailors give a guarantee like this?

Do you know what I had to do before I could make this guarantee?

I had to spend years of study and thousands of dollars to find a Process that would take all the shrink out of cloth and linings.

I succeeded at last. My process is a secret one. It takes out every inch of shrink. Shrink is what kills style in clothes.

For proof of this just look at the coat you have on.

See the two big wrinkles across the back—the wavy curves and wrinkles down the front—

Yet you paid for a good coat.

Nine out of ten coats you ever bought have those same wrinkles.

Caused by shrinking on the fit hot or rainy day after you put on the suit.

Pressing the suit may bring back the smoothness and creases.

But when the wrinkles and wavy curves have been planted there by shrinking—the style is gone forever.

Every honest tailor tries to shrink his goods before cutting. But try as hard as he can, he can't get all the shrink out.

My secret process shrinks "Tailor Shrunken" goods five per cent more.

This five per cent of shrink which other tailors must leave in their cloth and linings—is what ruins the style of their clothes.

My secret process takes all the shrink out—

Every last inch.

Then when Style is sewed into Royal Tailor Clothes—it stays there forever.

PRICES

Good made-to-order suits and overcoats can be made for $15.50.

A suit or overcoat tailored from the costliest imported woolsens should not cost you over $40.

I make the finest suits and overcoats in the world for $15.50 to $40 in the latest New York styles.

If you pay more than that—some tailor is charging you an exorbitant price.

Some of the best dressed millionaires in New York and Chicago wear Royal Tailors Clothes.

The average price they pay me for a suit or overcoat is $27.

I make over 1,000 suits a day—or 300,000 suits every year.

I buy the very finest London Woolsens and linings.

You can see at once that I can buy them much cheaper than if I bought for only one or two suits.

Half of what I save in buying large quantities goes to pay the best cutters and tailors money can get.

The other half—$10 to $20 a suit—I give to you to get your business.

Now you see—

Why my guarantee is shaking the merchant tailoring business.

How I can give this guarantee.

Why The Royal Tailors clothes hold their style when no other clothes can hold theirs.

And why a $15.50 to $40 Royal Tailor suit or overcoat is as good as money can buy—and still saves you $10 to $20.

MEASUREMENTS

The New System my local dealer has for taking your measurabsolutely guarantees a perfect fit.

When you get your suit or overcoat it will fit you.

Royal Tailoring is not expected to fit every man in town. A Royal Tailor suit or overcoat will fit no one else but you—because it was made from your exact measurements.

TO GET THE GUARANTEE

Remember no other tailor gives—or can give—the solid guarantee I give.

Therefore, be sure you get the Royal Tailors Clothes—the only clothes insured by this guarantee.

My dealer in your city has the Royal Tailor sample book showing over 500 of the latest and finest London woolsens.

When you pick out your suit—

Look for the two tigers at the top of of the sample page—

Or for the tiger's head on celluloid strip on bound cloth samples.

You will get the guarantee—signed and made out legally just like any other solemn legal contract—with the suit when delivered.

Don't take the suit—or any suit—without the guarantee.

Ayer's Cherry Cough Syrup
 SATURDAY NIGHT REVERIES.
 Has a woman a right to make a fool of herself if a man does? This would make a good subject for debating societies. A man can play at around nights, visit the gambling dens, play poker and lose money that he ought to spend for the comfort of his family. At the same time the wife is staying home, sitting by a cheerful fire and taking care of a number of children, that she has only a half interest in. The man will visit the saloon, smoke cigars, play the wheel, drink poor whiskey, and occasionally go and play with the girls that are not of his own family, while his wife is home trying to save money for the family by patching and darning and going without things for herself and the house. A man at the same time will "go out with the boys" and spend $25. Is it right? Supposing we turn the tables around and the wife commences to play the fool, for you can call it nothing else, and what will happen? Supposing the wife takes a notion to have a little time of her own? Let her go to the bowling alley, the billiard hall, the saloon. Go off to a convulsion or some other place with a lot of gay friends and have a good time, spend the money that ought to go toward paying expenses, smoke cigarettes, drink seven different kinds of booze and come home with a bad taste in her mouth and in a generally stained condition, wouldn't it break every link that binds the Home Circle together? Morally, she has just as much right as a man to do these things. She has just as good a right to be a fool as a man, but what would happen if she should?
 It is easy enough to guess. There would be divorces and other things too numerous to mention.

LOVER SEEKS AN OBJECT.
 Regarded as a sentiment, love is possible in respect to principles; but, regarded as a passion, it is possible only toward a person. No one dies for abstract truth. Idealize it, connect it with something tangible, and man will die for it—not before.
 Even then his self-sacrifice is impelled by regard, necessarily, of the force of collateral circumstances. A patriot does not lay down his life for liberty in the front rank of battle with the same feeling which fills the bosom of a frontiersman when he dies fighting at the door of his cabin in a heroic attempt to defend his wife and children from murderous savages. We admire beauty; we revere virtue; we praise modesty as elements of a character, but never until these are embodied in the form of the virtues could they be a physical form until the woman who, we believe, represents these qualities, stand before us, do we love them. The qualities we admire the woman we love.
 Here at this point, you see how love educates one in worthy directions.
 The man loves the woman, the woman the man, and each the qualities that the other represents. Each educates the other into a finer appreciation, a truer regard, a higher estimate of the virtues each embodies, and thus, as Tennyson sings,
 "They grew together, Dwarfed or Godlike, bond or free."

SOMETIME.
 "Sometime"—it is a sweet, sweet song, warbled to and fro among the topmost boughs of the heart, and filling the whole with joy and joy and gladness as the songs of birds do when the summer morning comes out of darkness and day is born on the mountains. We have all our possessions in the future which we call "sometime." Beautiful flowers and singing birds are there, only our hands seldom grasp the one, or our ears hear the other.
 But, oh reader, be of good cheer for all the good there is a golden "sometime," when all the hills and valleys of time are past when the wear and fever, the disappointment and sorrow of life are over, then there is the place and the rest appointed of God. Oh homestead, over

FRANK SMITH, Agt. at Smith & Amberg's

For Coughs and Colds

There is a remedy over sixty years old—Ayer's Cherry Cough Syrup. Of course you have heard of it, probably have used it. Once in the family, it stays; the one household remedy for coughs and hard colds on the chest. Ask your doctor about it.
 The best kind of a Cough Syrup ever made. It cures the activity of the throat, and thus aid recovery.

where roof fall no shadows, or even clouds, and over whose threshold the voice of sorrow is never heard, built upon the eternal hills, and standing with its spires and pinna-cles of celestial beauty among the palm trees of the city on high, those who love God shall rest under his shadows, where there is no sorrow no pain, nor the sound of weeping,
 "sometime"
MARRIAGE.

Marriage has in it less beauty, but more safety than single life; it has not more ease but less danger, it is more merry and more sad, it is fuller of sorrow and fuller of joys.
 It lies under more burdens, it is supported by all the strength of love and charity, and those burdens are delightful. Marriage is the mother of the world, and preserves kingdoms, and his cities and churches and heaven itself. Celibacy, like the fly in the heart of an apple, dwells in perpetual sweetness, but sits alone, and is confined and dies in singularity, but marriage, like the useful bee builds a house and gathers sweetness from every flower, and labors and unites into societies and republics and sends out colonies; and leads the world with delicacies, and obeys their king, and keeps order, and exercises many virtues, and promotes the interest of mankind, and is that state of good to which God hath designed the present constitution of the world.

HOW TO BEGIN THE DAY.
 Rise with a lark, but not for one.
 Be very careful to attire yourself neatly; conversely, like our saviors, are always better for a good dressing. Share unmistakably for your dearest from your room—china, like oysters, should have their heads taken off before they are permitted to go down. Start with determination to be agreeable and good tempered, and that like an over-whelming fire, nothing shall put you out. Should the tea not be hot, take it coolly; should the ham not be salt, omit the philosopher's Bacon, and having made a few pleasant observations about the milk of human kindness, the sugar of domestic felicity, the cup of happiness being full, the butter resembling an actor in a fresh part, because it appears in a new roll, conclude with the appropriate ballad of "Let the toast pass," cracking fresh eggs and stale jokes simultaneously.

BEAUTY OF OLD PEOPLE.
 Men and women make their own beauty of their own ugliness. Lon-Lynton speaks of a man "who was uglier than he had any business to be," and if he could but read it, every human being carries his life in his face, and is good looking or the reverse as his life has been good or evil. On our features the fine chisels of life and emotion are eternally at work. Beauty is not the monopoly of blooming young men and pink and white maidens. There is a slow growing beauty which only comes to perfection in old age. Grace belongs to no period of life and improves the longer it exists.

Stomach troubles, Heart and Kidney ailments, can be quickly corrected with a prescription known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. The prompt and surprising relief which this remedy immediately brings is entirely due to its Restorative action upon the controlling nerves of the Stomach, etc.
 A weak Stomach, causing dyspepsia, a weak Heart with palpitation or intermittent pulse, always means weak Stomach nerves or weak Heart nerves. Strengthen these inside or controlling nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative and see how quickly these ailments disappear. Dr. Shoop of Racine, Wis., will mail samples free. Write for them. A test will tell. You health can be certainly won this simple trial. Sold by all dealers.

A Kentucky Colonel the First Victim.

The first victim of the Texas law prohibiting drinking on trains was, and perhaps with some appropriateness—a Kentucky colonel, says the Baltimore Sun. The Kentuckian had a pocket flask, desecratedly concealed in the folds of a frock coat. The journey was a long one and in the course of his travels the gentleman from the Blue Grass State—and likewise the State of many distilleries, licensed and illicit—felt a dryness to his throat and decided to try the Kentucky remedy. In a dignified and deliberate way he walked to the ice cooler in the coach, drew his flask with a becoming modesty, mistaken his throat and was about to return the flask to his hiding place, when some one touched him on the shoulder. With the cordiality and good fellowship which are characteristic of the Kentuckian he immediately offered his flask to the stranger, invited him to partake and then, as a Kentucky gentleman always should, turned aside so that he might not seem to be watching to see how much of the liquor should be consumed.
 But this was no congenial spirit, no comrade suffering from thirst, but a minion of the law who arrested the colonel. The latter paid $10 and costs, and it is said that it may be years before he recovers from the shock.
